

NLNG's Commitment to NIGERIA... far beyond Gas

With top management that is 100% Nigerian and workforce 95% Nigerian, we are truly and proudly Nigerian, helping to keep the country's wheel of progress turning in many ways including:

- $15 billion paid as dividends
- $13 billion for Joint Venture gas purchase to FG via NNPC.
- US$5.5 billion in taxes.
- N51 billion in regulatory levies and fees makes us the single biggest tax payer to the Federal Republic of Nigeria, thereby enabling growth and development in all sectors of the economy.
- Reduced gas flaring in the country from above 65% to less than 20% today.
- The nation's major supplier of LPG, supplying up to 350,000 tonnes per annum.
- N60 billion contribution to N120 billion Bonny-Bodo Road construction.
- N3 billion annually for the next 25 years for the development of Bonny Kingdom through Bonny Kingdom Development Foundation.
- About $200 million spent in the Niger-Delta to provide infrastructure including water, road and 24/7 power supply.

- Donated $12 million worth of Engineering labs and equipment to six institutions from Nigeria's geo political zones - University of Ibadan, University of Port- Harcourt, Ahmadu Bello University, University of Ilorin, University of Nigeria Nsukka, and University of Maiduguri.
- Support Nigerian companies in different areas to become more international and enhance capacity for export and foreign exchange earnings given through its Nigerian Content policy. Examples include Berger Paints, Nexans Kabelmetal, Vina and IO furniture Limited, METEC West Africa.
- Sponsorship of the annual The Nigeria Prize for Science and The Nigeria Prize for Literature each with $100,000 prize money, the most prestigious of such awards in Africa.
- Our leadership drives a culture of pursuing transparency and anti-bribery and corruption in business.
